A Wisconsin Charitable Corporation Dedicated to the Preservation of Wildlife and Perpetuation of Sport Hunting

As we begin 2021, I am sure many never imagined the challenges 2020 was going to present. Last year, many non-profit organizations were forced to postpone or cancel their imperative fundraising events. Fortunately, for the SCI Wisconsin chapter, timing was on our side. We were so grateful to have hosted one of our chapter's most historically successful fundraising events at the Grand Geneva Resort.

Currently, Covid-19 continues to linger; however, we remain hopeful as the vaccine makes its way to the public. With that in mind, I am excited to announce the SCI Wisconsin annual banquet will continue and is scheduled for March 26th & 27th at the new Brookfield Conference Center off I-94 and Moorland Road in Brookfield, WI. We are so thrilled to utilize this amazing new venue, bringing the event more centralized within the Milwaukee Metro area, and not to mention, it is likely the facility can accommodate us for some time. The Brookfield Conference Center has a 1300-person capacity so even if social distancing restrictions are further required, we will still host an amazing event.

Now, more than ever, we know we are in uncertain times. It is this banquet which provides the resources for conservation investments through hunting. Our chapter, YOU, and efforts our chapter members have donated in the past, have allowed hunting to be the most effective method of managing our renewable wildlife resource. It is vital you continue to support SCI Wisconsin to keep its mission strong for future generations. As we strive to prepare for a successful banquet this year, we ask for your continued support now more than ever.

SCI Wisconsin is a 501-C3 organization, allowing for tax-deductible donations. All donations, regardless of size, build to form one amount that provides capabilities of size which allow significant input to the conservation efforts found through hunting. Your donation of time is also important. If you can spare a few hours, we will gladly accept.

I am encouraging you to join us at the banquet in March, bring friends if you can. Let us continue to share treasured memories with outfitters and friends we have hunted with in the past. We look forward to seeing all of you in Brookfield!
